

Layer Folders (Groups)
you should have the following folders:

1. stitches (white)
2. holes
3. decorative (black)
4. end stripes
5. football shapes
6. football text
7. gradient backgrounds
8. poster titles
9. single layer "your name"

New SKILLS learned:

- *Selections Intersect option
- *Layer Grouping
- *Gradient Editing
- *Transforming
 - scale Constrain proportions
- *Composition Organization
 - Outside Margin
 - Balanced text/object to page

Check list: SWHS Homecoming Poster

01. Document is the standard size and shows excellent composition _____
02. Saved as: footballYOURLASTNAME.psd
03. File info is filled out and your name in size 10 black Helvetica type is placed in the lower right hand corner. _____
04. Your football shape should be viewed as a form in space with a pattern overlay that represents pigskin. The form must be created by using your airbrush. You might have included a drop shadow to show off your form. _____
05. Background layer should be a gradient or a color with added shapes copied, duplicated and transformed to create an imaginative Homecoming Poster theme. _____
06. Lettering should be imaginative and should show your knowlege and skills using the type tool and transformations in the main menu. _____
07. Check to see that the midline and stitches are enhanced and placed in layer folder groups. The same layer grouping should be seen with the other object layers. _____
08. Save your work to your document folder in Major Works _____